Headline:
Staying cold on Saturday with sunshine and further wintry showers.

This Evening and Tonight:
Sunny then clear intervals and further sleet snow or hail showers. These will give a slight covering of snow and some icy patches. Occasionally fresh northwesterly winds, tending to ease. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Saturday:
Another bright but cold day with a mixture of sunny intervals and occasional snow or hail showers, though melting readily in the sunshine. Lighter northwesterly winds. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Sunshine with the odd wintry shower on Sunday, a spell of snow possible later. Light winds. Monday mostly dry and bright but cold. Tuesday milder but cloudier.
